

How to find insights from the training undertaken on your headset

If you or your trainees have undertaken training on a headset, you'll likely want to view insights and course reporting from within the Next World Platform Portal.

Head to the Next World Platform Portal

To access the Portal, point your browser to <http://nwxr.app>, for information read the following article.

From here, you'll want to look at the Training Insights page, available in the menu to the left.
